

Questions to help you identify your personal assets

What do you like to do that's useful?

What really brings out your passion?

What kinds of issues or causes are really important to you?

What experiences have you had that might be useful?

What experiences have you had that you really enjoyed?

What gives you the strongest sense of self-satisfaction?

What are you interested in, but maybe don't know much about?

What is your family passionate about?

What groups/clubs/organizations do you belong to?

What's a crazy idea you've had that you've always wanted to try?

So What?

What could you add to a ministry if you started with what you love to do and are passionate about?