

Agents of Healing

Developing a Health Ministry in Your Congregation

CONTENTS

Section 1: Faith and Health, an Introduction to Health Ministry

- The Scriptural Basis for Health Ministry and Wholeness
- Scriptures Related to Health and Healing
- Health and Wellness Ministry: Why should the Church Get Involved?
- Religious Practices That Positively Impact Health Status
- Roles and Functions of Religious Organizations That Make Them Natural Partners in Health Education and Health Promotion Initiatives
- Health Ministry: Providing for Health and Wholeness within a Congregation

Section 2: Approaches to Health Ministry

- Strategic Strengths of Congregations (chart and Power Point material) – Gary Gunderson
- Approaches to Health Ministry, Advocate Congregational Health Partnerships
- Health Ministries Program May Include...A Listing of Possible Activities

Section 3: Putting it all Together – Assessment and Planning

- Foundations for Ministry Beyond the Congregation
- Steps to Starting a Health Ministry
- Beginning Steps for Organizing
- Church Distinctiveness Survey
- Community Building Workbook
 - Chapter 1, Introduction
 - Chapter 2, Sharing the Experience
- Lafiya Strategy – Assessing Whole-Person Needs and Whole-Person Ministries
- You Have Permission!!! An Asset-Based Experience for Emerging Generations
- Appendix C. Jonas Salk's Questions
- Questions to Help You Identify Your Personal Assets
- Congregational Health Project Assessment: Social Analysis (Power Point material)

Section 4: Suggested Readings

- IHP Speeches and Publications: The Forest, the Spring, the Leaven
- Interpretation
 - Congregations as Communities of Health and Healing
 - Sickness and Healing in the New Testament Gospels
 - A Case for Theology in the Ministry of Healing
 - The Church as an Institution of Health: Making It Happen